IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE TWELFTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR MANATEE COUNTY, FLORIDA

COLONIAL MANOR MHC HOLDINGS, LLC,
Plaintiff, Counter Claim Defendant

VS

Case No.: 2025-CC-000715

GEORGE EDWARD YESKE, III
and ANY
UNKNOWN PARTY(s) IN POSSESSION,
Defendants and Counter Claim Plaintiffs

DEFENDANT'S RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF'S MOTION IN LIMINE

1. The Defendant agrees that Mr Nelson was served in Utah for testimony in this action, which is where the headquarters of Kingsley Management is located as demonstrated in Attached Defendant's Exhibit A. Mr Nelson holds several titles including Manager of COLONIAL MANOR MHC HOLDINGS, LLC, Kingsley Management Corp is also a Manager listed in the LLC Florida filings which Defendant's Exhibit B shows Mr Nelson as Not only the President of Kingsley Management Corp but also Secretary and Director. Since he is an obvious active participant in these businesses, it would be reasonable to expect him to know what is going on in these businesses unless. If Mr Price is claiming that Mr Nelson is irrelevant to this Plaintiff then since the Plaintiff has taken on a potentially destructive lawsuit it would have been without Mr Nelson's as manager unaware of the potential parallel lawsuit would bring and since we can simply look at the public records and find Mr Nelson's signature on both corporate documents and various other business documents and that would indicate he is an active participant in the business.
2. The Defendant has not made a claim that he did not pay rent to the Plaintiff he has also not seen a written lease demonstrating an agreement between the Plaintiff and Defendant and to that point, the Court recognized in an earlier order that the Defendant actually owned the lot after Mr Price made that claim at an earlier hearing. Is Mr Price now trying to assert that he mislead the Court previously?

3. Evidence of the overall condition of the premises is relevant since part of the premises is the lot itself. Therefore, the testimony of the Code Enforcement officer will bring forth one of several key factors that lead to the condemnation of the property.
4. The subpoenas were properly served under Florida 1.410 €(2) which clearly states "A person may be required to attend an examination only in the county wherein the person resides or is employed or transacts business in person or at such other convenient place as may be fixed by an order of court." Since this case is in Manatee County Florida and both parties served, do business or work in Palmetto, Florida and their work and business has a direct effect on this case, the validity of the Subpoenas is not in question.
5. The Plaintiff's lawyer, Mr Price was notified multiple times that we are to meet and discuss evidence. Mr Price has not responded to any of the emails. Mr Price was sent multiple emails regarding this and other issues as early as September 25, 2025 and has not responded to any of them. This type of action is common with Mr Price and the latest example of this type of behavior is the simple fact that he has had weeks to discuss this matter and has chosen not to reply until the Friday prior to a Monday hearing. If the thought of having to testify under oath is causing duress, Mr Price's clients apparently directed him not to reply to any of my emails which would be generally considered something in the realm of the Doctrine of Avoidable Consequences. (Florida Supreme Court System Components Corp v. Florida Department of Transportation, 14 So. 3d 967 – Fla 2009)

WHEREFORE: The subpoenas should be enforced by the Court and the evidence should be heard by the Court and the Court should allow admission of the evidence. The Court will soon see a definitive explanation of the need for this evidence which seems to want to be suppressed by the Plaintiff for no reasonable cause.

Respectfully Submitted to the Court November 23, 2025.

I certify that the above answer has been served in accordance with FLA Rules of Judicial Administration 2.516 through the Florida Courts Efiling system

Mr. Price,

This subpoena is going out today along with several others. Your client has chosen to not fully answer interrogatories and has outright lied on at least 2 of her answers. I look forward to seeing both she and Mr. Nelson in court.

Warm Regards,

George Yeske
