ANSWER AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES TO ALL COUNTS

First Affirmative Defense

The Plaintiff has paid or has attempted to pay all rent due and owing, along with all other financial obligations required. Any appearance of default or delinquency in rental payments or other monies has been caused entirely by the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff should therefore be precluded for evicting Defendant or claiming damages, based on its own conduct.

Second Affirmative Defense

The Plaintiff failed to provide or deliver written notice/demand for unpaid rent or other monies which it alleges in the Complaint. Pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 723.061(1)(a), written demand must be made by the Plaintiff prior to bringing the eviction proceedings. Pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 723.061(4), any notice to the Defendant must be posted on the premises and sent by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, and that delivery is deemed to occur five days after the date of the postmark.

Third Affirmative Defense

The Plaintiff has waived its right to eviction based on conduct which infers the relinquishment of a known right. Though Defendant, adamantly denies any violation of the “Rules and Regulations”, for the sake of this defense, any violations claimed by the Plaintiff to be the cause of this eviction proceeding have been waived by the Plaintiff.

Fourth Affirmative Defense

The Plaintiff brings this action with unclean hands and in bad faith. Pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 723.021, every party to a dispute is obligated to act in good faith and fair dealings. Upon information and belief, Defendant alleges that Joseph Nichols, an agent of the Plaintiff, has personal issues with the Defendant and is using Fla. Stat. 723, in bad faith to cause harm on Defendant. This defense is not limited to the allegations above, regarding the bad faith on the part of the Plaintiff.

Fifth Affirmative Defense

Pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 723.061(c), no properly promulgated rule or regulation may be arbitrarily applied and used as a ground for eviction. Again, Defendant adamantly denies any violation of the “Rules and Regulations”, however, for the sake of this defense, Defendant alleges the Plaintiff is arbitrarily enforcing the park rules and regulations in violation of Fla. Stat. § 723.061(c).

Sixth Affirmative Defense

The Plaintiff has failed to meet the condition precedents prior to initiating this proceeding.

Seventh Affirmative Defense

The Defendant alleges that Rule #7 – Lot & Home Maintenance – is unclear and ambiguous, and not consistent with the other provisions of the “Rules and Regulations” based on the issues raised by Plaintiff. Any ambiguity and/or inconsistency must be construed against the Plaintiff as the drafter. These rules are unclear, ambiguous, inconsistent, and cannot be the basis for this eviction proceeding.

Eighth Affirmative Defense

The principle of Equitable Estoppel prevents the Plaintiff with the right to evict based on the conduct of the Plaintiff which was relied on to the detriment of Morris.

Ninth Affirmative Defense

The Plaintiff has brought this action as Retaliation and pursuant to Fla. Stat. 723.0615 is precluded from prevailing in this action.

NOTICE OF PLEA FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES

Defendant(s) have had to hire the undersigned counsel to defend this action. Pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 723.068, if Defendant prevails in this matter, Defendant is entitled to have his reasonable attorney's fees and costs paid by Plaintiff. Defendant demands attorney's fees, costs, and expenses in defending this action.

MOTION TO DETERMINE RENT OR OTHER MONIES

The Defendant has at all times material to this claim paid or has attempted to pay the appropriate amount of rent at the beginning of each month. Defendant states that any rent or other monies the Plaintiff claims is due and owing is solely caused by Plaintiff.

Defendant demands strict proof of amounts due and owing, and requests Plaintiff to specifically explain and renderer proof of any amounts due and owing.

The Defendant request that a hearing be held to determine how much rent, if any, is owed or need be deposited into the court registry to maintain his defenses.

WHEREFORE, the Defendant, MORRIS, for the reasons stated above, requests that this Court hold a hearing to determine how much rent, if any is owed.
