Plaintiff,

vs.

CASE NO.: 2021-CA-4553

LORI SKIPPER,

Defendant.

PLAINTIFF'S FIRST REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

Pursuant to Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.370, Plaintiff Colonial Manor MHC Holdings, LLC ("Colonial Manor") requests that Defendant Lori Skipper ("Skipper") admit or deny the following within the time described by the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

DEFINITIONS

As used herein, unless the context indicates otherwise, the following words and phrases are defined as follows:

A. "You" or "your" or "Skipper" means Defendant Lori Skipper and her agents, servants, employees, and attorneys.

B. "Colonial Manor" means Plaintiff Colonial Manor MHC Holdings, LLC, its affiliates, and its agents, servants, employees, and attorneys.

C. "Colonial HOA" means Colonial Manor Homeowners Association, Inc., its affiliates, officers, directors, members, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys.

D. "Document" or "documents" refers to all written or graphic matter, drafts, originals, and non-conforming copies which contain deletions, insertions, handwritten notes or comments, however produced or reproduced, or to any tangible permanent record without limitation, and shall include, among other things, all letters, correspondence, records of conferences, memoranda, notes, telegrams, summaries, telephone logs and records, private wire messages, communications, mail diaries, email transmissions, agendas, reports, studies, appraisals, lists, contracts, agreements or proposed agreements, transcripts, depositions, press releases, affidavits, communications with government bodies, interoffice communications, results of investigations, newspaper or magazine articles, records of payments, releases, receipts, computer data, vouchers, and other records of voice recordings, film, tapes, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained. Different versions of the same document, handwritten notes or notations in any form, drafts of documents and documents with handwritten notations or marks not found in the original or on other copies are separate documents.

E. “Relating to,” “related to,” or “relate to” means containing, showing, relating to or referring in any way, directly or indirectly to, and is meant to include, among other things, matters that are or were underlying, supporting, or connected. It also includes documents now or previously attached or appended to, or used in preparation of any document called for by each request.

F. “And” as well as “or” shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of this request required information that might otherwise be construed to be outside its scope; and, as used herein, the singular shall include the plural and the plural shall include the singular, except as the context may otherwise require.

G. “Communication” means any exchange or transfer of information between two or more persons or their representatives whether in written, oral, or other form.

H. “Evidences of communication” means any document providing evidence relating to the occurrence of any communication, the context of any communication, the participants in or parties to any communication, or the disclosure of any communication including but not limited to, emails, text messages, social media messages, and voicemails.

I. “Identify” when used in reference to an individual person means to state his or her full name and present or last known address, including street name and number, city or town, state or country, and telephone number, and his or her present or last known position and business affiliation. “Identify” when used in reference to a document means to state the date and author, type of document (e.g. letter, memorandum, telegram, chart, etc.) and its present location and custodian. If any such document was but is no longer in your possession or subject to your control, state what disposition was made of it.

J. “Any,” “all,” “any and all,” “each,” “every,” and “each and every” shall be construed as synonymous as necessary to bring within the scope of this request all documents that might otherwise be construed to be outside their scope.

K. The term “person” or “persons” means any natural person, public or private corporation, partnership, joint venture, association, government or governmental entity (including any governmental agency or political sub-division of any government), any group, any form of business or legal organization or entity.

L. The term “devices” means any device capable of storing data, including but not limited to computers, phones, hard drives, disk drives, and flash drives.
