Morning

Just wanted to give you a heads up that the neighbor next to me has been coming over and asking for money. First time was this past weekend, a man knocking on my door wanting 9.00 for medicine. Then this morning the woman knocking on my door but I did not answer.

When I first moved in the man was taken to the hospital. When I was working out side the woman, her name is Debbie she said, that she cant get rid of the man because he will not leave. She said her mom lives there too.

Can someone tell them to stop begging please?
Thanks in advance.

No one under the age of 40 may reside in any unit of the park under any circumstances.

All persons must be approved to reside in the park.

All residents and overnight invitees must be registered prior to occupancy.

deemed terminated. If terminated, you will be notified that as a result of the termination of your lease caused by your failure to comply with the requirements of the Rules and Regulations of Colonial Manor, you will be directed to vacate the premises resulting from an eviction proceeding.

Fla. Stat. §723.061(2) reads:

For a second violation of the same properly promulgated rule or regulation, rental agreement provision, or this chapter within 12 months, the mobile home park owner may terminate the tenancy if she or he has given the mobile home owner, tenant, or occupant written notice, within 30 days after the first violation, which specified the actions of the mobile home owner, tenant, or occupant that caused the violation and gave the mobile home owner, tenant, or occupant 7 days to correct the noncompliance. The mobile home owner, tenant, or occupant must have received written notice of the ground upon which she or he is to be evicted at least 30 days prior to the date on which she or he is required to vacate.

A second violation of a properly promulgated rule or regulation, rental agreement provision, of this chapter within 12 months of this violation, is unequivocally a ground for eviction, and it is not a defense to any eviction proceeding that the violation has been cured after the second violation.

Notice of Non-Compliance with Community Rules and Regulations Giving Tenant/Owner Seven (7) Days to Correct Non-Compliance

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that pursuant to Florida Statute §723.061(e), the owner and residents are in violation of Colonial Mobile Manor Rules and Regulations. You are in violation of Colonial Mobile Manor Rule 3 which states, in relevant parts:

Rule 3: Occupancy.

Maximum approved residency is limited to three (3) persons.

No one under the age of 40 may reside in any unit of the park under any circumstances.

All persons must be approved to reside in the park.

All residents and overnight invitees must be registered prior to occupancy.

Your action which is violation of Rule 3 consists of allowing unapproved occupants/invitees to reside in Lot 108 of Colonial Manor, that have not applied for or been approved to reside in lot 108.

Your action required to correct the non-compliance with Rule 3 consists of removing all non-registered occupants from the premises of lot 108.

Pursuant to Florida Statute §723.061, DEMAND IS HEREBY MADE that you remedy the non-compliance with Rule 3 within seven (7) days of receipt of this Notice, or your lease shall be deemed terminated. If terminated, you will be notified that as a result of the termination of your lease caused by your failure to comply with the requirements of the Rules and Regulations of Colonial Manor, you will be directed to vacate the premises resulting from an eviction proceeding.

You previously violated the park rule, did not timely cure the violation, and the park notified you of the termination of your tenancy. The previous notice was served on March 12, 2024, followed by a Notice of Termination of Lease on May 14, 2024. Due to recurring violation, you are now being served with a new 7-day violation cure notice, which you are given the opportunity to cure. Failure to cure, and to remove all non-registered occupants from the premises will result in termination of your tenancy after which you will be required to vacate the premises in accordance with Florida Statutes.

EXHIBIT

Fla. Stat. §723.061(2) reads:

For a second violation of the same properly promulgated rule or regulation, rental agreement provision, or this chapter within 12 months, the mobile home park owner may terminate the tenancy if she or he has given the mobile home owner, tenant, or occupant written notice, within 30 days after the first violation, which specified the actions of the mobile home owner, tenant, or occupant that caused the violation and gave the mobile home owner, tenant, or occupant 7 days to correct the noncompliance. The mobile home owner, tenant, or occupant must have received written notice of the ground upon which she or he is to be evicted at least 30 days prior to the date on which she or he is required to vacate.

A second violation of a properly promulgated rule or regulation, rental agreement provision, of this chapter within 12 months of this violation, is unequivocally a ground for eviction, and it is not a defense to any eviction proceeding that the violation has been cured after the second violation.

Pursuant to Fla. Stat. §723.061(c)(2), Colonial Manor Mobile Manor hereby puts you on notice that if this same conduct continues or is repeated within twelve (12) months, your tenancy is subject to termination without you being given an opportunity to cure the violations described above.

GOOD FAITH NOTICE: ALL PERSONS RECEIVING THIS NOTICE ARE URGED TO CONTACT YOUR OWN ATTORNEY AND/OR TO CONTACT THE PARK MANAGER ABOUT COMPLIANCE

PLEASE GOVERN YOURSELVES ACCORDINGLY.
