COMES NOW Kalman of the family Hartig, a live breathing man on the land and soil, am here by special divine appearance, to settle this matter, to call for a constitutional court of record, to ask for a MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE AND EXTENSION OF TIME based on the true facts placed on the record by my documents.

1. The Defendant herein moves this Court to grant a MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE AND EXTENSION OF TIME based on the following facts:

A) A settlement between the parties was reached on May 2nd, prior to the set court date of May 5, 2025. The settlement was submitted to the court and then subsequently approved.

- B) Defendant agreed to submit to the eviction on his own volition, and originally requested a deadline of December 31, 2025 to vacate the premises. Plaintiff was not realistic in setting a workable date as Defendant is in possession of a large volume of things, mainly a voluminous personal library, other documents and many pieces of equipment pertaining to his personal education, creative interests, pursuits and hobbies.
- C) Even though Defendant pleaded with Plaintiff for more time, it seemed to have fallen on deaf ears. Defendant was fully aware of the sheer volume and time needed to take care of things and remove the items from the Mobile Home. He agreed with extreme reluctance to the deadline of June 5, 2025, realizing that the alternative would have been much worse.
- D) Defendant does not understand why Plaintiff is so inflexible as the entire legal proceedings against him seems all contrived, fabricated and without any basis in fact, reality and evidence. This leads him to conclude that the entire proceeding is based on a personal vendetta, as well as an unfair and discriminatory persecution.
- E) In view of the above mentioned facts, Defendant believes that he was coerced into accepting the terms regarding the deadline because the alternative would have been worse. Defendant strongly believes that this settlement was not based in reality, but vicious persecution and retaliatory behavior.

In view of the above mentioned points, Defendant hereby moves for a CONTINUANCE AND EXTENSION OF TIME to complete his task of vacating the premises in a realistic and workable time frame as was originally requested. Defendant is required to pay the rent through the end of this month and beyond anyway. Consequently, an extension of time through at least the end of the month seems very reasonable. He wishes to sell the premises by the deadline stipulated in the settlement, but wonders if Plaintiff is more interested in acquiring his property by setting unreasonable and unrealistic deadlines, rather than making the situation workable and mutually beneficial.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

Dated this 4th day of June, 2025 and electronically filed and served through the Florida e-filing portal to all parties concerned.
