COMES NOW Kalman of the family Hartig, a live breathing man on the land and soil, am here by special divine appearance, to settle this matter, to call for a constitutional court of record, to ask for a MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE AND EXTENSION OF TIME based on the true facts placed on the record by my documents.

1. The Defendant herein moves this Court to grant a MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE AND EXTENSION OF TIME based on these newly presented following facts:

- A) On August 24, 2024 Defendant had been diagnosed with an emotional Hoarding Disorder by a competent Psychological Professional. Documentation can be provided upon request, even though Defendant does not believe that it is necessary as his actions and behavior over the last few years have become obvious and visible to everyone.

- B) Defendant hereby claims protections afforded and available for Hoarders under THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA), FAIR HOUSING ACT (TITLE VIII OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1968), THE FAIR HOUSING AMENDMENTS ACT (FHAA), and other available State and Local protection laws.
- C) These claims have become operative since the time that the DSM-5 MANUAL (Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, 5th edition) recognized hoarding as a mental disorder.
- D) According to Defendant's understanding and research Plaintiff is hereby required to make reasonable accommodations and provide additional time for Defendant to accomplish the overwhelming task of cleanup and moving out. Failure to do so may result in claims for discrimination and possible elder abuse.

In view of the above mentioned points, Defendant hereby moves for a CONTINUANCE AND EXTENSION OF TIME to complete his task of vacating the premises in a realistic and workable time frame as was originally requested. Defendant is required to pay the rent through the end of this month and beyond anyway. Consequently, Defendant requests an extension of terms till July 31, 2025. Defendant believes this request to be workable, reasonable and would be sufficient to comply with the protections afforded by the above mentioned laws.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

Dated this 5th day of June, 2025 and electronically filed and served through the Florida e-filing portal to all parties concerned.
